

Coste Motte

IGP Atlantique

“Traditional with a deep red color. The powerful nose opens up with notes of mocha.”

COSTE MOTTE, a mysterious name full of history. Not far from Gironde-sur-Dropt, at the heart of the Entre-deux-Mers, this wine with colored reflections comes to whisper the delights and scents of yesteryear.

Grape Varietal:
Cabernet sauvignon

Taste:
The palate displays an impression of sweetness with round and melted tannins.

Appellation:
“IGP Atlantique” designates the great terroirs of the South-West of France.

Alcohol:
12.5% by vol.

Soil:
Clay and Limestone

Imported by

WINE CIRCLE